TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR CHRISTMAS

I. Thou shalt not leave Christ out of Christmas, making it Xmas. To most minds X stands not for Christ, but for the algebraic unknown.

II. Thou shalt not value thy gifts by their cost, for many shall signify love that is more blessed and beautiful than silver and gold.

III. Thou shalt give thyself with thy gift. Thy love, thy personality, and thy service shall increase the value of thy gift an hundredfold and he that receiveth it shall have treasure forever.

IV. Thou shalt not let Santa Claus take the place of Christ, lest Christmas become a fairy tale rather than a sublime reality in the spiritual realm.

V. Thou shalt not burden thy servant. The shop girl, the mail carrier, and the merchant shall have thy consideration.

VI. Thou shalt not neglect the needy. Let thy bountiful blessings be shared with the many who will go hungry and cold unless thou art generous at Christmas.

VIII. Thou shalt be as a little child. Christmas is the day of the Christ Child; not until thou has become in spirit as a little child art thou ready to enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

IX. Thou shalt prepare thy soul for Christmas. Verily, most of us spend much time and money getting gifts ready, but few seconds in preparing our souls.

X. Thou shalt give thy heart to Christ. Let thy Christmas list have Christ at the top and thy heart as a gift. In so doing thou art as the wise men of old, and verily thou shalt find thyself born again on Christmas Day.

BE ALERT

Guard Against Suffocation

National Safety Council figures list suffocation as the major cause of accidental death in the home to children less than one year old. New baby clothes, soft plastic or rubber gifts, such as party balloons and other materials given as Christmas presents, may smother or choke a child.

Parents should match toys with a child's age level and interests. They should look for toys with the Underwriters Laboratories Inc. (UL) Safety Label. They should supervise the use of toys, and discard or replace those badly damaged.
